Tenure Track, Assistant Professor in Rehabilitation Psychology

The Department of Rehabilitation Psychology and Special Education at the University of Wisconsin-Madison is seeking outstanding candidates for two (2) tenure track faculty positions at the Assistant rank, beginning August 17, 2020.

Degree and area of specialization
Ph.D. required in Rehabilitation Counseling, Rehabilitation Counselor Education or Counselor Education OR an earned doctoral degree in a closely related field, if combined with a university position held for at least one year prior to July 1, 2017 in a Rehabilitation Counselor Education program, accredited by the Council on Rehabilitation Education (CORE), or in a Counselor Education program for at least one full year prior to July 1, 2013 (in accordance with the recommendations of the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs).

Minimum number of years and type of relevant work experience
- Evidence of established research and scholarship.
- Evidence of success in securing funding to support research (preferred).
- Evidence of professional identity with clinical rehabilitation counseling through sustained membership in professional associations, professional development and renewal, professional service and advocacy, and areas of focus of research and scholarship.
- Direct service experience in rehabilitation or closely related counseling settings.
- Evidence of university-level teaching (preferred).
- Knowledge and skills related to teaching and counseling culturally-diverse and disability-diverse populations.

Principal Duties
1) Conduct an active program of nationally recognized research and scholarship.
2) Obtain substantial external financial support for research and to support graduate assistants.
3) Teach courses in B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. programs in rehabilitation psychology, clinical rehabilitation counseling, and rehabilitation counselor education.
4) Advise undergraduate and graduate students and supervise graduate student research.
5) Participate in shared governance and committee activities within the university.
6) Participate in community and professional service, including positions of leadership at the local, state, and national/international levels.

The Rehabilitation Psychology/Clinical Rehabilitation Counseling/Rehabilitation Counselor Education program at the University of Wisconsin-Madison is currently tied for the No. 1 ranking among all graduate programs in Rehabilitation Counseling in universities nationwide, according to U.S. News & World Report. The program is widely regarded as the leading producer of faculty in rehabilitation counseling programs in universities in the U.S. and in a number of other countries. Graduates have become some of the most prominent researchers and scholars in the field and leaders within the profession. In addition, program faculty are involved in collaborations on research grants with other institutions that currently total more than $56 million and serve as principal and co-principal investigators on more than $7 million in grants and contracts from those projects awarded to the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

How to Apply
Applicants should submit the following documents: 1) Curriculum Vitae; 2) Statement of Interest; 3) First sample of scholarly writing; 4) Second sample of scholarly writing; 5) Contact information for three references. Letters of recommendation and official transcripts will be solicited for finalists.

Applications must be received by October 15, 2019 for full consideration. Application materials should be submitted electronically to: https://jobs.hr.wisc.edu/en-us/job/502894/assistant-professor-rehabilitation-counselor-education-programs

Questions about the position can be directed to:
Dr. Susan Smedema (ssmedema@wisc.edu)
Department of Rehabilitation Psychology and Special Education; University of Wisconsin-Madison

NOTE: Unless confidentiality is requested in writing, information regarding the names of applicants must be released upon request. Finalists cannot be guaranteed confidentiality. UW-Madison is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. We promote excellence through diversity and encourage all individuals to apply. A criminal background check will be conducted prior to hiring.